

I am opposed to the Consumer Banking Association's attempt to impose the pre-existing business relationship exemption on Indiana's telephone privacy act. I don't need or want any more telemarketing calls. I am already deluged with credit card offers in the mail. I don't need any more over the phone. If my bank wants to make me an offer, it can do so by mailing with the monthly statement. Please do not impose this exemption on Indiana law.